

Frenchtown, on Elk river, to the Delaware line, in a direction towards Newcastle; and,

Mr. Creswell, from the select committee, to which the subject had been referred, reported a bill, entitled an additional supplement to the act, entitled an act to incorporate a company under the name of the Nottingham Library Company, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and fifteen, chapter one hundred and forty-four.

The twelve last mentioned bills were severally read the first time, and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Wooton, from the select committee appointed on the subject, reported a bill, entitled, an act to revive and extend the charter of the Planters bank of Prince Georges' county, so as to enable the Institution gradually to wind up its affairs; which bill, being read the first time, was, on motion of Mr. Gantt, read the second time, by special order, passed without amendment, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

Mr. Hunt, from the select committee, to which had been referred the bill from the Senate, entitled, a further supplement to the act, entitled, an act to incorporate the President and Directors of the Firemen's Insurance company, of Baltimore, reported, verbally, that the committee, having considered said bill, were of the opinion it ought to pass without amendment.

The said bill was then read the first, and, by a special order, the second time, passed without amendment, and returned to the Senate.

On motion by Mr. McMahon,

The House proceeded to consider the bill reported by him, on the first instant, entitled, a supplement to the act, entitled, an act to regulate the fees of certain officers; and it was read the second time;

When, on motion by Mr. Done, the said bill, was amended, by the adoption and insertion at the end thereof of the following as an additional section, viz:

And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall not be the duty of any of the clerks of the county courts which are mentioned in the foregoing sections of this act; nor shall it be lawful for any clerk to charge or receive any fee for recording the same, over and above that allowed in the second section.

The bill so amended, was then passed, and sent to the Senate for concurrence.

The bill reported by Mr. Kinzer, entitled a supplement
